PRESS RELEASE

INDIA AND PERU: OPPORTUNITY FOR BUSINESS IN THE LEATHER SECTOR

A business delegation of 13 Indian leather products companies led by Council for Leather Exports (CLE) participated in an exhibition of Buyer-Seller Meet in Lima on July 23-24, 2015.

The event was organized by the Embassy of India, in association with the Lima Chamber of Commerce. The Indian exhibitors had a large number of meetings with Peruvian companies, including large departmental stores to discuss potential business and further enhance bilateral trade in this vital sector. High quality leather skins, jackets, wallets, purses etc. were on display and the quality of which was appreciated by all those visiting the Exhibition.

Ambassador Sandeep Chakravorty, speaking at the inauguration of the two-day event, said that the Indian leather industry which is already exporting to the USA and Europe and generates huge employment in India provides for an excellent opportunity to the Peruvian buyers to procure quality leather products to meet demands of not only Peru but the entire region. Ambassador also added that Peru also had a vibrant leather industry and by coming together they could avail of this opportunity to the mutual benefit of both countries. The delegation also visited a tannery located near Lima on the last day of their visit to gain experience and knowledge of Peru's leather industry.
